The essays will be judged by the selection committee in April. The top three applicants will be interviewed in May by the FOL Scholarship Committee. The winning applicants will be announced at the May FOL General meeting.

The scholarship student should agree to receive the award at the FOL May general meeting. Acceptance of the FOL scholarship authorizes the use of photographs and the names of recipients in all FOL promotional news releases.

The scholarship funds will be paid directly to the selected winners' institute of higher education. The student must provide proof of admission, and then the FOL scholarship funds will be issued.
